Section 5.08.560 Suspension of License.

A. Any violation of this chapter by a manufacturer, rectifier, wholesaler, licensee, employee or agent thereof is sufficient cause for the suspension and in the case of gross violation the revocation of the licensee of the licensee.

B. In addition, the Rawlins City Council may, upon receipt of notice from the State of Wyoming suspend the license of any licensee if the licensee has failed to pay sales tax as required by state statute and the Division has ceased sales to the licensee of alcoholic liquor to the licensee. In the event that a license is suspended by the Rawlins City Council, the affected licensee may appeal the suspension to the District Court in the manner specified in W.S. §12-4-104(f) and in accordance with the Wyoming Rules of Appellate Procedure. The suspension shall remain in effect during the period of appeal. (Ord. No. 6-96, Enacted, 06/11/96)

C. In a proceeding for revocation of a liquor license and when a licensee is found guilty of violating W.S. §1-101 through §12-8-301, the district court or the division may, if it appears inadvisable to revoke the license, suspend the license for a period of not to exceed the balance of the term for which the license was issued and the suspension shall not, of itself, disqualify the license holder for renewal at the end of the license term.

The revocation proceedings shall be in accordance with the Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure, and the trial and all other matters to come before the court shall have a priority upon the court calendar. If, upon trial, it appears that the license or permit of the licensee should be revoked, the court shall enter its order accordingly. The court may revoke the license or permit upon proof that the intent and purpose of this title has been violated. The fact that no criminal proceeding has been instituted or that no law with sanctions has been violated is not a defense to the action. Upon the application of the state and upon a showing to the satisfaction of the court that there are probable grounds for believing the license holder's license should be revoked, the court may issue an order suspending a license during the pendency of an action for its revocation and no bond shall be required as a condition to the issuance of the suspension order. Appeal from the final district court decision may be taken according to the Wyoming Rules of Appellate Procedure, but the order of revocation shall remain in effect pending a decision by the appellate court.

F. The provisions of this section are cumulative and shall not be construed as preventing the division from revoking a liquor license in any case authorized by law.

G. The division may revoke any license or permit issued under this title for violation of any of the rules and regulation promulgated by the department pursuant to this title or for violation of any of the provisions of this title. Prior to suspension or final revocation of a license or permit under this chapter the division shall issue at least two (2) written notices of the intent to revoke or suspend the license or permit to the licensee. The notices shall be provided at least one (1) week apart and the final notice shall be provided at least thirty (30) days prior to any suspension or revocation. The notice shall identify the violation warranting revocation or suspension of the license or permit, the date when it will be suspended or revoked and the ability to appeal and to continue to operate as provided in this subsection. Unless the division orders otherwise, a licensee may continue to operate under the license or permit pending an appeal of a license suspension or revocation to the state board of equalization made under this subsection. Any appeal shall be filed with the state board of equalization not more than thirty (30) days following the suspension or revocation of the license or permit. Appeals before the state board shall be conducted as a contested case under the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act and the state board shall either affirm or deny the action taken by the division. The state board may affirm an order of immediate suspension of a license or permit if the division demonstrates that the licensee should not be permitted to operate pending the outcome of an appeal made under this subsection. The decision of the state board shall be subject to judicial review under W.S. §16-3-114 except that the review shall not operate to stay a revocation or suspension order of the division during the pendency of the district court proceeding or during a later appeal to the supreme court. Should the license or permit of a licensee expire during the pendency of an appeal before the state board or in any of the courts of this state, no new or renewal license shall be granted by the licensing authority to the licensee or any other person pending the outcome of the appeal.

H. Upon the final revocation of a liquor license or permit, all alcoholic liquors in the possession of the license holder and which are in merchantable conditions shall be delivered to the division which shall reimburse the license holder for the value thereof at its then regular wholesale prices. All malt beverages and non-merchantable alcoholic liquors shall be disposed of at the direction of the division. (Emergency Ord. 06A-2017, Amended 6/27/17)
